

CONSENT AND RELEASE

At the request of the Reel Fun Film Festival (“RFFF”) I am prepared to submit various things such as video images, animation, pictures and an information sheet about myself (identifying me by my first name only), my hobbies and things that interest me (collectively “the material”) to RFFF.. In consideration for the exposure that material will receive I give RFFF permission to make whatever use they wish of any or all of the material at their discretion, wherever and in whatever media or formats they choose, for as long as they wish.

I warrant that all the material is created and owned by me and I have not used anything, including but not limited to music, photographs and artwork, belonging to anyone else in the material. I understand that I will continue to own the material and I am simply granting RFFF the limited right to use it as described above. I also release RFFF from any and all actions, claims and demands arising from the circumstances consented to above.
